at the MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE

The never-before-told story of the courageous individuals in Nazi-occupied Albania who saved the lives of thousands of Jews during World War II, witnessed through the prism of two men joined together in a remarkable and unexpected quest: a renowned Jewish-American photographer determined to record the bravery and compassion of the Albanians; and a Muslim-Albanian toy shop owner who sets out to return three precious books to the last surviving member of the Jewish family his father sheltered sixty years before.

Their meeting sets in motion an extraordinary and unexpected drama that bridges generations and religions.
